

THE GREATEST STORY FROM THE SMALLEST PLACE.

Luke 1:26-38

Mary and Joseph were insignificant people from a village of about 100.

God used Nazareth as his base to start a global revolution. Mary and Joseph are two main key players in this plot. The story of the revolution continues to be told.

How can we continue to tell this great story?

1- Be one of the characters in story.

38“Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word.”

Mary was a sinner, fearful when the Angel greeted her. But she trusted God would use her as one of the central characters in the story.

Inspire other to trust God for something bigger than themselves: He will be great, Son of the Most High. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever; his kingdom will have no end.

2- Be narrator of the story

Listen to the story of in your neighbourhood

How can you contribute to write a different story for the people around you?

Joseph and Mary’s obedience changed the narrative of Nazareth.

3- Be a Translator of the story

The Gospel is still a myth and a foreign language for many; a stupid religion. How can we live our lives in a way that translates the Gospel into a practical real life principles and values to be embraced? European politicians are talking about preserving European values – these values originated from interaction with the Bible; Europe needs to return to Bible. Christmas or holidays?
