

Suggested Bible-Reading Plan for Revelation

Nuneaton Christian Fellowship - October and November 2018

The Apostle John was originally a fisherman, as was his father Zebedee and his brother James. We read about his calling by Jesus in Matthew 4:18-22, Mark 1:16-20 and Luke 5:1-11. Along with Peter and James, he was part of the inner core of the 12 Disciples. Many people think 'the disciple who Jesus loved' is John: John 13:23, 19:26, 20:2, 21:7, 21:20. He was banished to Patmos (perhaps by Emperor Domitian), but probably died in Ephesus in the 90sAD. He was the last of the 12 Disciples to die and is thought to be the only one to die naturally.
